

BHSA BY-LAWS

Updated 12/1/08 (Changes in Red)

ARTICLE I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this association is to promote and improve the areas' hunter show industry and provide a vehicle for members to participate in a year end award program. The business and objectives to be carried on and promoted are as follows:

- (1) Define the divisions for which awards will be given.
- (2) Accept member horse shows.
- (3) Accept exhibitor members
- (4) Accrue points
- (5) Produce a year end event
- (6) Foster harmonious relations between shows and exhibitors
- (7) Encourage consistency in unrecognized hunter competitions
- (8) Provide educational events to its members covering show ring standards and etiquette, judging standards and rules, responsibilities of exhibitors and their agents, trainers, coaches including integrity, sportsmanship, and adherence to the rules through knowledge of them as well as conduct, importance of ethics and such other subjects as deemed appropriate.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP

Eligibility: Members shall be those persons admitted to membership in this Association. Membership in the BHSA is a privilege and is offered to those who pay their current dues, abide by the bylaws and rules of the BHSA and conduct themselves in a manner compatible with the best interest of the Association. The membership year will begin December 1st of the previous calendar year and ends November 30th of the current calendar year. In order to accrue points for BHSA awards an exhibitor, horse and owner/lessee must be registered and in good standing with the association.

Membership classifications:

(1) Individual Membership:

Senior Membership: Those members who have reached their eighteenth birthday prior to December 1st of the previous year. Each Senior member in good standing shall have the right to cast one vote at any meeting of members.

Junior Membership: Those members who have not reached their eighteenth birthday and do not qualify as Senior members. Junior members shall not have the right to vote at any meeting of members, but may attend such meetings.

(2) Show Membership:

- a. Show membership shall be issued only to persons who are members of such horse shows as may be recognized by the Board of Directors in their discretion, and only one member of any such Horse Show, who shall be designated by such Horse Show, may hold show membership in the BHSA at any one time. To be eligible to be recognized by the Board of Directors as a Show Representative, a Horse Show must send to the Secretary of the BHSA the name of its representative to represent its show membership with full voting powers. A written statement that the said show will abide by the rules and regulations prescribed by this association for holding and continuing horse shows, and will hold its shows at such date or dates as assigned by this association shall be on file before the dates are assigned.
- b. Any show member may voluntarily resign from this Association at any time after sixty days written notice to the Secretary. Upon resignation, a show member will forfeit any dues which it may have paid. When by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors it is determined that a Horse Show recognized by the Board has failed to observe its agreement to abide by the rules and regulations of this association for holding and conducting horse shows, or has failed to hold its show at the date or dates assigned by this Association, the membership of the show member from such show shall be revoked, and any dues paid by such show member shall be forfeited.

Termination of Membership: No membership shall be transferable, and each membership shall terminate at any time upon the resignation of the member, or at any time by vote of the Directors at any regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present and for which notice was given as prescribed in these bylaws upon receiving an affirmative vote at least equal to (a) two-thirds of the Directors present at such meeting and (b) one-half of all Directors.

Rights and Privileges: So long as a member remains in good standing he shall be entitled to and enjoy all the rights and privileges of membership.

ARTICLE III. MEETINGS

Annual Meeting: The annual meeting of the Association, for the purpose of electing the Board of Directors for the ensuing year, and for such other matters as may come before the meeting, shall be held in November of each year or at such other time, as designated by the Board of Directors. Notice shall be given to each member at least two weeks prior to the annual meeting. Annual meetings shall be general meetings. They are general meetings open to the transaction proper for consideration by members and with in the powers of the Association without special notice of such business except in cases in which special notice is required by statute of the bylaws. Each Senior member in good standing will have one vote.

Special Meetings: A special meeting of the members may be called by the President or a majority of the Board of Directors upon ten (10) days notice. Upon the request in writing to the President of 10% of the membership, it shall be the duty of the President to call forthwith a special meeting of the members; such a request shall state the purpose of the meeting and notice thereof shall be given as required for special meetings.

Quorum: Except as otherwise stated in these bylaws, those Senior members present for a regularly called general meeting, for which notice as required by these bylaws shall have been given, shall constitute a quorum.

Voting: Each member, eighteen years of age or older, shall be entitled to one vote. If a quorum is present, an affirmative vote of a majority in voting power of the members represented at a meeting and entitled to a vote on a subject matter shall be the act of the members, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law, parliamentary procedure, or the bylaws.

Procedures: The deliberations of the Association shall be governed by parliamentary usage as contained in "Roberts' Manual of Parliamentary Rules".

ARTICLE IV. BOARD OF DIRECTORS
